

GERMAN LINER SAILS WITH 1,900 VOYAGERS ABOARD

Six Changes in the Passenger List of the George Washington.

The Titanic disaster seemed to have very little effect upon those who had booked passage on the North German Lloyd liner George Washington, which sailed today from her dock in Hoboken. It was officially announced that there were only six changes in the names of the nineteen hundred passengers which the vessel had on board when she steamed down the bay. It had been expected that many persons booked to sail, with the horror of Sunday night still fresh in their minds, would become nervous at the last minute and defer their sailing.

The company's officials at the Hoboken dock said it was not unusual to have changes in the passengers list at the last moment, but in the case of the George Washington today the changes were comparatively few. It was also said the stateroom given up by these six passengers were immediately taken by others who had wanted to sail, and that when the George Washington left her pier she had her full complement of passengers.

BIG GIRDER BLOCKS TRAFFIC.

26-Ton Mass Too Much for East Side Theatre Derick.

Delay in moving a steel girder weighing twenty-six tons from the tracks of the Second Avenue Railroad at Houston and Chrystie streets, tied up traffic two hours and caused much confusion.

The girder, part of the roof garden of the new theatre which is being erected at Houston and Chrystie streets, was brought to the building by an under-slung wagon. In the first attempt to raise it with a derrick, it was found the winch was not powerful enough. Efforts to budge the huge mass were unavailing until a new rigging was slung from the boom, two hours after the girder struck the street.

NEW YORK WOMAN SLAIN BY MAN WHO KILLS SELF.

Stranger Walks Into Boston Workshop, Calls for Victim and Begins Shooting.

BOSTON, April 18.—Miss Ida Martine, forewoman at the shops of Markwell, Paul & Mark, shirtwaist manufacturers, was shot and killed to-day by a stranger, an Italian, who committed suicide. The tragedy occurred in the office of the firm. There is no clue to the identity of the slayer.

SHOT AS THEY STROLLED.

Girl and Her Suitor Wounded by Jealous Rival.

CHICAGO, April 18.—While strolling along the street together to-day two persons were shot in the back of the head by Nicholas Staples, twenty-two years old. One of the victims was Florence Miller, a year younger than the assailant. Her companion was Philip Tenerelli, a few years older.

One bullet struck Miss Miller behind the right ear and inflicted a probably fatal wound. The shot that hit Tenerelli furrowed his scalp. Staples and Tenerelli were rivals. The police arrested both men.

Lost Control.

(From the Yankee Magazine.)

Redd—Did you hear about my neighbor losing control of his automobile?

Greene—No, I didn't.

"Well, he did. The Sheriff's got it now!"

TRAVIS IS TIED FOR LOW SCORE AT LAKEWOOD

Annual Spring Tourney Begins To-Day Under Most Discouraging Conditions.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., April 18.—Qualifying play in the annual spring golf tournament of the Lakewood Country Club began to-day with the largest field in years but under discouraging conditions. The course could scarcely be heavier. Walter J. Travis got away early, while among other stars due to tee up are George Stanley, Yale, Intercollegiate title holder; Gardner White, who has held the scholastic championship; Percy Platt, city champion of New York; Howard Perrin, twice Philadelphia district champion, and Percy Kendall, Des Moines, Iowa, two of the longest drivers in America.

At noon rain came down in torrents. The storm spoiled the chances of Howard Perrin. He tied, however, at 3 o'clock with Travis for low score of 73. Best scores: V. C. Longly, Providence, R. I., 74; Topping, Greenwich, Ct., 75; Ridgeway, Lakewood, N. J., 76; Theodore Sena, Atlantic City, N. J., 77; F. H. McCall, Atlantic City, N. J., 78.

MGR. McNAMARA BURIED.

Prominent Catholic clergymen from various parts of the United States and Atlantic City, N. J.; Brice Evans, Boston, Mass.; W. J. Travis, Garden City, N. Y.; R. P. Adams, Milwaukee, Wis.; M. L. Tappin, West Brook, N. Y.; P. S. McLaughlin, Wyckoff, N. J.; M. J. Condon, Wyckoff, N. J.; W. E. Helm, Fox Hills, N. Y.; J. V. Gaines, Wyckoff, N. J.; C. E. Turner, Midland, N. Y.; Wyatt Taylor, Ardley, N. Y.; C. H. Gardiner, Providence, R. I.; Howard Perrin, Merion, Pa.

Canada attended the funeral to-day of the Right Rev. Patrick J. McNamara, senior Vicar-General of the Diocese of Brooklyn. The services were held in St. Joseph's Church, Pacific street, Brooklyn. Bishop McDonnell was celebrant of the solemn high mass.

The church was crowded with sorrowing friends of the dead clergyman, while crowds stood outside in the rain. Plans in the vicinity were at half mast. The interment will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Flatbush.

World Wants Work Wonders.

LYNCHED IN VACANT LOT BY ARMED MONTANA MOB.

Accused as Murderer of Woman, Prisoner Is Taken From Jail by Masked Men and Hanged.

FORSYTH, Mont., April 18.—Harry Heffner, alleged slayer of Mrs. William Merrill of Jopka, near the town of Rosebud, Mont., was taken from the county jail early to-day by a crowd of sixty masked and armed men and, despite the efforts of the sheriff and his deputy, was hanged to a tree in a vacant lot.

MARY POWELL AFIRE.

Veteran Hudson River Steamboat Saved by Vigilant Watchman.

The steamer Mary Powell, oldest and one of the fastest steamboats of this port, owned by the Albany Day Line, caught fire early to-day while undergoing repairs at the dry dock of Tietjen & Lang, in Hoboken. The flames were quickly extinguished and the damage was slight.

A Strategist of the Future.

(From the Washington Star.)

"Shall we make the attack on that country to-day?" asked one hostile general. "No," answered the other. "We're too late. We should have made it yesterday, when the entire army and navy were at the football game."

New---Silk Mull Nightgowns, $2

There is nothing that the comfort-loving woman delights in having more than a very sheer nightgown—and now she may have the nearest approach that has ever been made toward the ideal. While this silk mull is sheer and soft it is of such good quality that the nightgowns are practical. Quite simply fashioned in harmony with the daintiness of the material—the low round necks and short slashed sleeves merely being trimmed with insertion and edging of fine imitation baby Irish lace. White, light blue and pink.

We Always Do Things in a Big Way— So This Will Be a Large Sale of Paris BLOUSES Tomorrow

If a Blouse was made entirely of real and precious lace—as many of them are—our ears were deafened to its plea for clemency—for this Sale is an absolute disposal of all our imported Blouses whose sizes have become depleted.

Yes, prices are very much reduced, but we are always willing to make a sacrifice to keep our stocks kept up to the minute!

All the Blouses are handmade and charming in style—and the majority are in lingerie styles, quite a few are of fine laces—and nearly every one is trimmed with lace; also some of crepe and chiffon.

$5 Paris Blouses, $1.95

White batiste, hand-embroidered in white.

$6.95 Paris Blouses, $2.95

All-white, and hand-embroidered in white.

$8.75 and $10.75 Paris Blouses, $3.95

Voile and crepe, embroidered in colors.

$10.75 and $12.75 Paris Blouses, $5

All-white, others embroidered in the rich Durbur color on-rose shades.

$14.75 to $22.75 Paris Blouses, $6.95

Many of these are trimmed with real lace—think of it!—All hand-embroidered.

$35 to $45 Paris Blouses, $19.75

Just six of these dainty lingerie affairs.

$50 to $60 Paris Blouses, $24.75

A dozen of these—but each is perfectly charming.

Model Blouses—Many of Real Laces

As there is only one of a style and as a meagre description could not convey an idea of the beauty of these exquisite combinations of Venice, Filet, Irish, Chantilly and other real laces—some intermingled with gold or silver laces—we shall simply quote the prices, which we know represent economies that seem to be too good to be true. But we are anxious to close out these one-of-a-kind Blouses.

$45 to $55 Paris Blouses, $29.50

$70 to $85 Paris Blouses, $40

$90 to $125 Paris Blouses, $50

Newest Paris Model Copied By Gimbel Milliners Adorned with Beautiful Ostrich Plume, $12.75

A plume-trimmed Hat of fine hemp braid is something not to be scorned at $12.75, especially when it reproduces the latest idea of Paris, and when it is so beautifully made. You must know Gimbel Hats to appreciate how carefully the braid is sewed by hand, how the facing of black velvet is fitted and how expertly the straps of velvet around the crown are finished. And at a glance of the hat it will be evident—even more than in the sketch—that this lovely, snowy Ostrich plume has been poised by an artist.

Many other new models at $6.50 to $14.75, will be shown in the Medium-Priced Salon tomorrow.

Leghorn Hats Flanged With Velvet, $2.75

An excellent quality of genuine Italian Leghorn, and flanges are of black silk velvet. A number of styles in medium and large shapes that lend themselves to flower, plume and other trimmings.

Tageline Braid Hats, $1.75

This braid is a new and clever imitation of hemp—and the Hats are remarkably good-looking at $1.75. Six styles—all black—and carefully blocked.

The No-Charge Trimming Service

is accepted by women who buy our finest Hats and Trimmings, as well as those whose choice is very modest—as we extend it to everyone who purchases both untrimmed hats and trimmings in our Millinery Sections.

More of Those $15 Norfolk Suits Which the Junior Girls of New York Are Talking About

Every day a number of girls who are just anticipating their first Tailored Suit and those who have the Norfolk craze ask for these $15 Suits. And how delighted they are when they see that they, too, can have them—for envy has been burning within many young hearts ever since they have seen their school chums wearing these Suits. Of course, they ask the other girls where they can get them or if they must be made to order—that shows how excellently they are tailored.

Tomorrow, as never before, we shall be prepared to meet this demand, for most of these Suits in sturdy navy serges and whipcords, black-and-white checked fabrics and mixed chevrons, have just arrived. Two styles—one with straight boyish lines, and the other is semi-fitted. Coats are lined with either satin or peau de cygne.

English top-coats for junior girls—genuine Harris tweed, at $16.50.

Also many styles in Dresses, Coats and Suits for these girls of 13, 15 and 17 years.

Specials for Young Girls:

Top Coats, $5

A plain boyish style, as the illustration shows, of either black-and-white shepherd check fabric or navy serge.

Linene Dresses, $2.25

In a model of white linene, which is straight in effect, but the box plait at each side gives the necessary spring and fullness, trimmed with pink, blue or red linen.

Also every other kind of Coat and Dress for young girls of 6 to 14 years. Party Frocks, $10 and $65; Lingerie Dresses, $3.75 to $35; Top-coats, $5 to $17.50.
